Class of 2013 Annual Pledge Appeal

Thank you again for everyone's fundraising efforts to date for the Class of 2013. In addition to specific fundraising activities, we are also continuing with the annual pledge appeal. As you will recall, last winter we submitted to all parents and guardians a request for making an annual pledge to the Class of 2013 to offset the cost of the senior activities for all students. The following is a reminder of the details and dates for this second year of the annual appeal.

You're invited! This is your invitation from the Roosevelt High School class of 2013 to be a part of an ongoing fund raising effort from now through your student's senior year: "2012 / 2013". It is just one of the many ways to support the Class of 2013. Other opportunities to raise funds will be made available to families during your student's remaining years at Roosevelt High School.

Who is involved? We all are, as a group of families, parents and guardians who have a student graduating from Roosevelt in 2013.

What is it? Each participant makes a pledge (suggested minimum donation of $50) for each of the remaining school years that your student has at Roosevelt. Participants may also choose to donate the entire pledge at one time.

What is the money used for? Each class at Roosevelt is responsible for raising money to help pay for their senior end-of-year activities including: Prom, Senior Luncheon, and Spree (a PTSA sponsored all-night activity after the graduation ceremony in a safe and supervised environment). These events are expensive and costs continue to rise each year. All the money raised will go directly to a fund to help lower the cost per student and offer scholarships when needed. Cost per student can be as high as $300 if not subsidized through our fund raising efforts.

How will I be billed for my pledge for the remaining years?
Rather than track each committed pledge and submit an annual reminder, we are merely reaching out again to all families for an annual contribution.

How else can I support the class of 2013? There are a number of other events and fund raising planning efforts underway. The following are specific activities that we have committed to for this school year. Stay tuned for more opportunities to help out with the Class of 2013.
